

AA SLOGANS AND SAYINGS WORKSHOP

What's happening?

This will be an interactive, general participation Workshop focusing on the twelve AA slogans we commonly use (see below), and looking at a broad sample of AA sayings from a choice of hundreds.

Where?

Parramatta on the North side, 250 metres from the river. The venue's address is 8 Victoria Road Parramatta, on the corner of Villiers Street opp. St Patrick's Cathedral and the big park. It's a block West of Church Street where Maccas is. The building is called 'Information & Cultural Exchange'.

When?

Sunday 2 October in the middle of the Long Weekend.

What time?

Beware! That Sunday is the start of Daylight Savings. There will be a pre-Workshop 'Coffee Kick-Off' from 9:30am, which will seem just like 8:30am if you haven't changed over to Daylight Savings yet.

When will it start and finish?

The Workshop starts at 10:00am with an AA 'Fun Quiz', but the Workshop proper commences at 10:30am. There's a Lunch Break in the middle and a coffee break. The Workshop should wrap up at 4:30pm or a bit earlier.

Travelling and parking?

Public transport close to the door by bus. Trains and RiverCat Ferry to Parramatta. Free nearby street parking and a convenient parking station.

Food and more?

Light lunches on sale in the Workshop, plus yummy street eats.

Cost? Donations of $20 or more most appreciated. AA literature for sale.

Organised by AA NSW Service Council (Incorporated)
